

Bibliography of Canadian Literature in the Special Collections of the Trent University Archives as of March 2012.

This collection has grown over a number of decades and often through donations. Early on the Library's base collection was built via the Shell Canada Fund for Canadian Literature. Later donors of significant numbers of books include, A.J.M. Smith, Margaret Laurence, and Hugh and Elizabeth Anson-Cartwright.

Note: This bibliography is in Library of Congress call number order. The first section lists Canadian literature serials and the second section lists monographs. The monographs are both fiction and literary criticism.
